Sector Coverage

White House AI accord leaves labs exposed to regulators

By EG Geo-technology, Heather West, Nick Reiners, et al.

The accord does not shield the labs from existing consumer protection or antitrust authorities, leaving them as exposed to enforcement as they were before the signing.

Permitting package would accelerate timelines and raise costs for data center power procurement

By EG Energy, Climate & Resources, Herbert Crowther, Noah Daponte-Smith, et al.

Provisions in the recently-released permitting package would raise energy costs allocated to new data centers but improve policy certainty for projects.
