Subject: [From JETRO] Learn in One Day! Introduction to Trade Practice Course Guidance (Online and Nagoya Venue Held Simultaneously)

① Trade Practice Course - Introductory Level (September Schedule)

★Perfect for new employee training and strengthening the foundation of overseas business managers!

JETRO Nagoya offers the introductory level of the Trade Practice Course four times annually. Through a one-day lecture, participants will develop practical skills in trade practices from the basics to understanding actual trade documents under the guidance of experienced instructors (over 300 participants attended in fiscal year 2025). In light of increasing overseas transactions, please take advantage of this opportunity to acquire broad knowledge and resolve questions regarding overseas transaction procedures.
