

JETRO Business Brief 2026/07/23

JETRO JUL 23 18:06

Subject: JETRO Business Brief 2026/07/23

2026/07/23

【Asia-Oceania】

Hainan Province reaffirms its policy to ban new gasoline vehicle sales by 2030 (China)

●Guangzhou

Guangzhou City announces 2025 average annual wages (China)

●Guangzhou

President Xi announces establishment of Global AI Cooperation Organization (China)

●Shanghai

Dongying Port in Shandong Province completes crude oil import terminal capable of handling 250,000-ton ultra-large tankers (China)

●Qingdao

Chongqing City announces policies for expanding service sector capacity and improving quality (China)

●Chengdu

Hong Kong Book Fair hosts Sports and Leisure Expo simultaneously, promoting Japanese experiential consumption and regional tourism (Hong Kong, Japan)

●Hong Kong

ASEAN Secretariat updates foreign direct investment statistics; intra-regional net inflows increase while flows from Japan decrease (ASEAN, Malaysia, Indonesia, Cambodia, Singapore, Thailand, Philippines, Brunei, Vietnam, Myanmar, Laos, East Timor)

●Jakarta

ASEAN Secretariat holds briefing sessions to promote digital signature and data management systems in preparation for DEFA implementation (ASEAN, Malaysia, Indonesia, Cambodia, Singapore, Thailand, Philippines, Brunei, Vietnam, Myanmar, Laos)

●Jakarta

AI plant factory systems to expand overseas with focus on Japan; interview with GreenFight (Singapore)

●Singapore

Indonesia's first-half new vehicle sales increase 15.9% year-on-year (Indonesia)

●Jakarta

Parts sourcing exhibition and business matching event held in Ho Chi Minh City to promote local procurement expansion (Vietnam, Japan)

● Ho Chi Minh City

Laos deposits instrument of accession to the Hague Agreement; takes effect in October (Laos)

● Vientiane

India's first privately-developed orbital rocket launch succeeds, boosting space industry growth (India)

● Mumbai

Bangladesh Central Bank relaxes overseas remittance restrictions for technology-related expenses of companies in economic zones (Bangladesh)

● Dhaka

【North America and Central/South America】

U.S. Federal Aviation Administration announces full resumption of airworthiness certification issuance for Boeing 737MAX and 787 aircraft (U.S., Indonesia, Ethiopia, Ireland)

● New York

U.S. USTR announces conclusion of reciprocal trade agreement with Jordan (U.S., Jordan)

● New York

Chicago Federal Reserve economic report shows economic activity grew modestly from late May to early June; Middle East situation continues to have impact (U.S.)

● Chicago

Trump-backed candidate wins in Arizona gubernatorial Republican primary (U.S.)

● Research Division, Americas Section

Canada participates as first observer in next-generation fighter aircraft joint development plan "GCAP" by Japan, UK, and Italy (Canada, Japan, Italy, UK, U.S.)

● Research Division, Americas Section

President Sheinbaum meets with Panama President Mulino (Mexico, Panama)

● Mexico City

Venezuela enacts implementation regulations for amended hydrocarbon law (Venezuela)

● Caracas

Transition to 42-hour weekly work week completed; small and medium enterprises express cost increase concerns (Colombia)

● Bogotá

Peru government formulates comprehensive railway development plan through 2050 (Peru)

● Lima

Brazilian government and industry express concerns over U.S. USTR's 25% Section 301 tariff measures against Brazil (Brazil, U.S.)

- São Paulo

【Europe, Russia, Central Asia, and Caucasus】

UK government nationalizes British Steel (UK, China)

- London

Germany's Proxima Fusion secures Europe's largest funding in nuclear fusion field (Germany)

- Berlin