Upcoming Conference Call

US Midterm Update

Sep 24th, 2026

Join Eurasia Group analysts for a discussion of the 2026 midterms — including Democrats' improving polling position, Senate control, and policy implications — as well as updated views on US diesel export controls. Restrictions now look likely before 15 October (65% odds), earlier than previously expected, with Trump able to act via emergency authority or executive action without congressional approval.

Submit questions in advance here .

Topics:

- * What is the current state of the race in polling?
- * Democrats' pathway to majority
- * Policy implications of larger Democratic majority

Thursday, 24 September at 10:00 am EDT / 3:00 pm BST
