Upcoming Conference Call

Saudi Arabia & Yemen conflict update

Please join Eurasia Group Managing Director Firas Maksad and Professor Bernard Haykel of Princeton University for a discussion of the Saudi-backed offensive in Yemen, the potential paths of the conflict and their impact on energy infrastructure, and implications for Saudi Arabia's political and economic outlook.

Wednesday, 7 October at 11:00 am EDT / 4:00 pm BST

Submit questions in advance here .

Topics:

- * What are the most likely military and political scenarios for the conflict, including a push toward Hodeidah or Sana'a?
- * Will the Houthis, Iraq's Iran-backed militias, and potentially Iran itself attack Saudi Arabia's energy infrastructure?
- * How would a prolonged escalation affect Saudi political stability and fiscal priorities?

About Firas Maksad

Firas Maksad is the managing director for the Middle East and North Africa practice at Eurasia Group. He oversees the team covering the region's geopolitics and macroeconomics and US foreign policy toward that part of the world. Firas is a recognized expert on the politics of Lebanon and Syria, the geopolitics of the Arab Gulf states, and the broader dynamics of the Middle East. Prior to joining Eurasia Group, Firas was a senior director and senior fellow at the Middle East Institute, a leading Washington-based think tank. He also managed his own boutique political consulting firm and has been an adjunct professor at George Washington University's Elliott School for International Affairs. Earlier in his career, Firas worked for Eurasia Group as an analyst in the Middle East and North Africa practice. Firas's writings have appeared in leading publications such as the Washington Post, the Wall Street Journal, Foreign Policy, Foreign Affairs, and the Los Angeles Times. He frequently offers expert commentary on US politics and the Middle East for global news networks, including CNN, the BBC, CNBC, Bloomberg, and others. Firas holds a master of science in foreign service degree and an honors certificate in international business from Georgetown University. He completed his undergraduate degree in political studies at the American University of Beirut.
