

JETRO Business Brief 2026/07/31

JETRO JUL 31 18:08

Subject: JETRO Business Brief 2026/07/31

2026/07/31

【ASIA-OCEANIA】

Exchange meeting on trade promotion and supply chain cooperation between China and ASEAN held in Guangzhou (China, ASEAN)

●Guangzhou

Italian parliamentary delegation meets with Zhejiang Province Governor, expresses commitment to promoting economic exchange (China, Italy)

●Shanghai

Tianjin's H1 2026 GRP growth rate stands at 4.8%, exceeding national average (China)

●Beijing

Rapid increase in electricity demand due to AI proliferation; China Southern Power Grid in Guangdong Province expands supply capacity (China)

●Guangzhou

JETRO holds Japan-Korea Content Business Forum in Shanghai (China)

●Shanghai

Central China's four provinces announce H1 2026 economic indicators (China)

●Wuhan

Samsung Electronics' Q2 performance driven by significant growth in semiconductors (South Korea)

●Seoul

India's Education Minister resigns amid youth protest movement (India)

●New Delhi

JETRO holds Maldives Business Seminar, introduces investment opportunities for economic diversification (Maldives)

●Planning Department

【NORTH AMERICA AND LATIN AMERICA】

Think tank experts explain Trump administration's Section 301 tariff implementation; various countries and regions react (US, Brazil, EU)

●New York

President Trump's approval rating within Republican Party declines according to poll (US, Iran)

●Research Department

Japan Foundation seeks ideas for collaborative technology development program with global energy companies (US, Japan)

●Houston

Wisconsin startup support organization implements manufacturing-focused program at Nagoya's "STATION Ai" (US, Japan)

●Nagoya

Q2 US GDP growth rate slows to 1.5% annualized; below expectations but personal consumption and capital investment remain solid (US)

●New York

US Treasury Department updates sanctions target list for second time, establishes review portal (US)

●New York

US Health and Human Services and State Departments announce policy to restrict funding for high-risk life sciences research (US)

●New York

Democrat candidate Talarico leads slightly in Texas federal senate election poll (US)

●Research Department

North American labor unions express concern over Canada Section 338 tariffs; US-Canada trade negotiations continue (Canada, US)

●Research Department

Mexico's Economic Minister Ebrar negotiates to reduce US Section 232 additional steel and aluminum tariffs from 50% to 10% (Mexico, US)

●Mexico

Major coal-fired power plants announce phased restart to stabilize electricity supply (Venezuela)

●Caracas

Brazilian government requests WTO consultation over US Section 301 tariffs (Brazil, US)

●São Paulo

【EUROPE, RUSSIA, CENTRAL ASIA, AND CAUCASUS】

Japanese companies in Europe proceed with PPWR implementation preparations but face challenges in Declaration of Conformity (DoC) preparation; insights from Japanese companies in Germany (EU, Germany, Japan)

●Research Department

European Commission research institute analyzes packaging material trends; plastics show expansion tendency (EU)

●Brussels

European Commission begins developing new intellectual property utilization guidelines to promote university-origin startup creation (EU)

●Düsseldorf

Kazakhstan President visits China; inter-organizational cooperation agreements in AI sector concluded (Kazakhstan, China)

●Tashkent

【MIDDLE EAST AND AFRICA】

Saudi Arabia's Ministry of Finance welcomes IMF Article IV Consultation report (Saudi Arabia)

●Riyadh

Saudi Arabia CST